Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

(A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or

(B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person

- (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
- (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

(A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and

(B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

For access to subpoena materials, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(a) Committee Note (2013)

SCHEDULE A

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

The following definitions and instructions shall apply to the requests for production:

1. The uniform definitions and instructions set forth in Local Civil Rules 26.2 and 26.3 of the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York are incorporated by reference.
2. “COPs” shall mean the Certificates of Participation (also known as Pension Obligation Certificates) issued in connection with the COPs Transaction, or either of them.
3. “COPs Transaction” shall mean each and both of the issuance of COPs in 2005 and 2006 by the Detroit Retirement Systems Funding Trust 2005 and/or the Detroit Retirement Systems Funding Trust 2006.
4. “You” and “Your” shall mean you, and your employees, agents, officers, directors, representatives, attorneys, affiliates, associates, subsidiaries, successors or predecessor.
5. In producing documents pursuant to these requests, you are required to furnish all documents in your possession, custody, or control, including without limitation documents possessed by your agents, attorneys, investigators, representatives, financial advisors, consultants, officers, directors, or employees.
6. The duty to produce documents shall not be limited or affected by the fact that the same document is available through another source.

7. Documents are to be produced in a way that identifies the request or requests to which each document applies, or as they are maintained in the usual course of business. Documents to be produced shall be the original of all documents in the regular files as maintained, together with any documents that were clipped or attached to them, and, in addition, any originals or copies containing handwriting or other notations. A complete and legible copy may be produced in lieu of producing the document itself.

8. Notwithstanding a claim that a document contains privileged information or is otherwise partially immune from discovery, any such document must be produced with the portion claimed to be protected excised.

9. Should you obtain any other documents or information which would supplement or modify the documents or information supplied by you in response to this request, you are directed, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(e), to give timely notice of such documents and information and to furnish the additional documents or information without delay.

DOCUMENT REQUESTS

1. Documents concerning the COPs Transaction, including without limitation
 - (a) documents concerning the planning, conception, creation, consideration, implementation, issuance, or formation of the COPs Transaction; (b) any and all legal issues concerning the COPs or the COPs Transaction; (c) any and all opinions, legal or otherwise, with respect to the COPs or COPs Transaction; or (d) any efforts to obtain approvals of the COPs Transaction.
2. Documents received from, or sent to, anyone with respect to the COPs Transaction, including documents concerning the nomination of the COPs Transaction for consideration as (a) the 2005 National Deal of the Year, or (b) the 2005 Midwest Regional Deal of the Year.
3. Documents concerning the selection of the COPs Transaction as the 2005 Midwest Regional Deal of the Year and as a finalist for the 2005 National Deal of the Year.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I, Bruce Bennett, hereby certify that the foregoing Notice of Subpoena Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 45, was filed and served via the Court's electronic case filing and noticing system on this 2nd day of July, 2014.
